AHS Musical Honored by Fox Cities PAC Center Stage High School Musical Theater Awards Program

Ashwaubenon, WI – April 10, 2024 – Ashwaubenon High School's musical production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is being honored by the Fox Cities PAC Center Stage High School Musical Theater Awards program, during its 8th year of honoring achievements of high school musical theater. The entire cast and production were honored as Outstanding Ensemble, one of 5 of the 31 northeast Wisconsin high schools participating in the program. The crew was also honored for Outstanding Student Pit Orchestra. The cast will be performing at the Center Stage Awards Showcase and Recognition ceremony May 18th at the Fox Cities Performing Arts Center.

In addition to overall performance recognition, individual students were recognized for their performances: Aren Damayo for Outstanding Performance in a Lead Role, Isabelle Garrigan for Outstanding Performance in a Supporting Role, and Lydia Fite for Honorable Mention for a Lead Role Performance. Lastly, Bernie Rocheleau, Ashwaubenon High School musical director, was honored as an Influential Educator.

The Center Stage Showcase and Recognition will be held at the Fox Cities Performing Arts Center, Saturday, May 18th at 7:30 pm. Tickets for the Showcase are $15 for adults and $10 for students and can be purchased at the Fox Cities P.A.C. ticket office in person or by phone (920) 730-3760 or on the Fox Cities P.A.C. mobile app.
