ASHWAUBENON HIGH SCHOOL HONORING NATIONAL HALL OF FAME COACH KEN 'G' GOLOMSKI

Ashwaubenon, WI – August 18, 2017 – On Friday, September 8th at 6:30pm, prior to the Ashwaubenon Jaguar vs. Bay Port varsity football game, Ashwaubenon will be honoring ex-football Coach Ken 'G' Golomski. Golomski was inducted into the Wisconsin Football Coaches Hall of Fame, and this past May into the National High School Athletic Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

We are hoping to have as many of Coach 'G's players, fellow coaches, students, co-workers and Ashwaubenon residents as possible join us for this pre-game ceremony. We are recognizing 'G' not only for the Jaguars' 4 State Championships under his direction, but more importantly, for the positive impact he's had on so many people both on and off the field. The ceremony will include the unveiling of a permanent monument at Goelz Field in 'G's honor. Please refer to the graphic below for more info.

HONORING COACH 'G' Friday, September 8, 2017

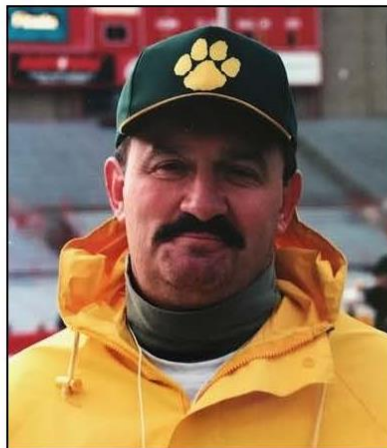

On Friday, September 8th, right before our Ashwaubenon Jaguar football team hosts Bay Port, we will be honoring Coach Ken 'G' Golomski. 'G' was inducted into the Wisconsin Football Coaches Hall of Fame, and this past May into the National High School Athletic Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

We'd like to have his players, fellow coaches, students, co-workers and Ashwaubenon residents join us for this pre-game ceremony. We are recognizing 'G' not only for the Jaguars' 4 State Championships under his direction, but more importantly, for the positive impact he's had on so many people both on and off the field. The ceremony will include the unveiling of a permanent monument at Goelz Field in G's honor.
