Ashwaubenon High School Students Re-enact ‘To Kill a Mockingbird’ Trial

Ashwaubenon, WI – October 25, 2011 – The students in Lindsey Hilgemann’s 10th Grade English class at Ashwaubenon High School recently completed a trial scene re-enactment from Harper Lee’s To Kill a Mockingbird. The classroom was arranged like a typical courtroom with the judge behind a podium, a witness stand in front of the room, and desks arranged for jury members and spectators.

Each student chose a character to represent from the famous trial scene and dressed appropriately for their respective role. Noteworthy acting performances were given by Kaitlyn Tramp as Mayella Ewell, Brent Schwake as Heck Tate, and Alex Arias as Bob Ewell. A courtroom photographer, bailiff, and reporter were assigned to make the event more realistic.
