Ashwaubenon High Sends Two Student Musicians To Perform In State Honors Concerts

Ashwaubenon, WI – October 24, 2011 – Two Ashwaubenon High School students will be performing during the Wisconsin Music Educators Association (WMEA) State Conference in Madison on October 27. The Ashwaubenon students selected for this year's Wisconsin Honors Music Project are Bailey Jaworsky who will sing soprano in the State Honors Treble Choir and Libby Welton who will play percussion in the State Honors Band. The concerts will be held in the prestigious Madison Overture Center.

The Wisconsin Honors Music Project offers talented youth the opportunity to rehearse and perform with nationally-known conductors in a professional setting. Music honor students sight-read their music at a summer camp that was held on the University of Wisconsin Green Bay campus and will rehearse again in Madison before the concerts. Students selected for the honors program must be a member of their school music performing groups. The judges recommend a placement for each student based solely on an audition performance. A highly recommended student is described as "A potential section leader, and an outstanding musician. One of the best".
