Ashwaubenon's Pioneer Elementary School Hosting Reading And Writing Showcase

Ashwaubenon, WI – April 17, 2012 – Ashwaubenon's Pioneer School is hosting a Reading and Writing Showcase on Thursday, April 19th from 12:30 to 2:15 p.m. The afternoon will include students showcasing literary projects. Guests are cordially invited to share in the festivities which take place at the elementary school on 1360 Ponderosa Avenue.

First graders will participate in Readers' Theatre. Second graders will be sharing their video-tape of Fabulous Funny Fairy Tales. Third and fifth grade students will be sharing responses to recently read children's literature. Native American Research reports will be shared by fourth graders using Jog the Web, an informational technological website. There will be other opportunities to learn how art, music and physical education are woven into our curriculum. Our German and Spanish World Language classes will also be presenting skits. A map, including a brief description of the events, will be available at the entrance.

For more information, please contact Barbara Dolan-Wallace, Pioneer's Enrichment Coordinator, at 920-492-2925 extension 6154 or bdolan-wallace@ashwaubenon.k12.wi.us.
