Ashwaubenon Offers Summer “Reading Rocks” Program For Children

Ashwaubenon, WI – July 26, 2011 – The Ashwaubenon School District, Ashwaubenon Parks and Recreation Department, and Barnes and Noble are teaming up again to offer “Reading Rocks: an hour of reading and fun in the park”, for the next several Wednesday mornings. The program, for children ages 2 to 4 and students entering 4 year-old Kindergarten through 5th Grade, takes place at Ashwaubenon’s Klipstine Park. It started on July 20 and runs through August 17 from 10:30-11:30 am. Reading Rocks is followed by the Village’s popular Concert in the Park series.

Reading Rocks sessions are free and no pre-registration is necessary. Children will have stories read to them by teachers and will take part in fun activities. Many sessions include prizes and a craft project to be taken home.

Below are the themes for the remaining summer sessions:

Wednesday, July 27 - Fishy, Fishy, Fish, Fish

Wednesday, August 3 - Back to School with Barnes & Noble

Wednesday, August 10 - Karate

Wednesday, August 17 - Bugs, Bugs, Bugs
