Valley View Elementary's KMO Team Is Number One In The State

Ashwaubenon, WI – April 12, 2010 – Ashwaubenon's Valley View Elementary School Knowledge Master Open (KMO) team earned first place in Wisconsin during the Spring KMO academic competition. Overall, the team ranked twelfth among 281 other 5th grade teams from thirty-seven states and four countries.

The Valley View team, composed of Jeff Ai, Joey Boushka, Kate Rolling, Armani Hill, Walker King, McKenzie Maccaux, Erik Schuster, Skye Vandeleest, Nic Christensen, and Kaiden Conrad, competed on March 24th by answering 100 challenging questions from all curriculum areas. They scored 703 points out of a possible 1,000 points.

According to Joel Hibbard, KMO coach and 5th Grade Teacher, "This group of Valley View 5th graders has a lot to be proud of. Their teamwork, ability to problem solve, and hard work has led them to be number one in the entire state of Wisconsin when it comes to the Knowledge Master Open."
