Two Ashwaubenon High School Singers Earn Exemplary Solo Recognition

Ashwaubenon, WI – May 24, 2013 – Ashwaubenon High School students Lauren Pavlik and Rachel Marik earned exemplary awards at the state solo and ensemble competition held at the University of Wisconsin - Green Bay on May 4th.

Pavlik sang ‘Black Swan’, a classic solo by Menotti, and Marik performed a Broadway solo, ‘Send in the Clowns’ by Sondheim, for which the awards were given.

The Exemplary Solo Recognition Project expands recognition of outstanding soloists at the Wisconsin School Music Association (WSMA) State Festival. State Festival adjudicators select the most exceptional student soloists at each festival site. This year, 433 exemplary vocal and instrumental soloists were selected from the nearly 9,000 solo events performed statewide.
