ASHWAUBENON BAND CONCERT FEATURES VETERANS TRIBUTE, PACKER HALL OF FAMER

Ashwaubenon, WI – November 6, 2012 – The Ashwaubenon Bands will present their annual Fall Finale Concert on Monday, November 12th at 7:00 pm in the Ashwaubenon High School Fieldhouse. The bands will devote a special portion of the concert to pay tribute to our veterans on Veterans Day. This year the bands welcome Packer Hall of Famer Gerry Ellis who will perform a rendition of “America” with the high school bands. In addition, local newscaster Bill Jartz will emcee the concert.

The 185 member Ashwaubenon Jaguar Marching Band will once again welcome over 300 middle school band students from Parkview Middle school to the event. Each band will be featured before all 485 students combine for the grand finale.

The Ashwaubenon High School Band has performed in events around the United States including the Tournament of Roses Parade, Orange Bowl Parade, New York St. Patrick’s Day Parade, and Green Bay Packer Halftime Shows. The band is directed by Marc Jimos and Scott Konop.

Admission to the event is $3 or a canned good donation. Canned goods will be donated to Paul’s Pantry.

For more information, please contact Marc Jimos, Ashwaubenon High School Band Director, at 920-492-2955 extension 5715 or mjimios@ashwaubenon.k12.wi.us.
