

BRAD TAYLOR
Information Coordinator
920.492.2905 ext. 1017
E-mail: btaylor@ashwaubenon.k12.wi.us

MEDIA RELEASE

For More Information, Contact:

Andrew Meinel, Co-Coach
Ashwaubenon High School Dance Team
920-492-2925, ext.6160
ameinel@ashwaubenon.k12.wi.us

Ashwaubenon Jaguaress Dance Team And Watertown Blue Revue Team Up For Send-Off To Nationals

Ashwaubenon, WI – February 20, 2014 –On Monday, February 24 at 6:30 p.m. the Ashwaubenon High School Jaguaress Dance Team and the Watertown Blue Revue Dance Team will team up to showcase their national dance competition routines in the Ashwaubenon High School Fieldhouse. Although they compete against each other, in the spirit of good sportsmanship and love of dance the two teams will join forces and compete as “Spirit of Wisconsin” at the national competition. Admission is free of charge.

The Ashwaubenon Jaguaress Dance Team will perform its hip hop, jazz, kick and pom routines. In addition, the send-off will feature solos and duets team members have performed throughout the season. Watertown Blue Revue Dance Team will perform its hip hop, jazz and kick routines. The “Spirit of Wisconsin” combined team routine will be the finale of Monday’s send-off.

The teams will head to the Contest of Champions national competition held in Orlando, Florida in late February. The Ashwaubenon Jaguaress Dance team is coached by Rodney Anderson and Drew Meinel. The Watertown Blue Revue Dance team is coached by Linnea Nagel.

Even though there is no cost of admission to the send-off, the Ashwaubenon Jaguaress Dance Team will be accepting donations on behalf of the Class of 2012 Derek Benton Memorial Fund.

For more information, please contact Drew Meinel, Co-Coach of the Ashwaubenon High School Dance Team at 920-492-2925 ex 6160 or at ameinel@ashwaubenon.k12.wi.us

Picture Attachment: “Spirit of Wisconsin”: The Ashwaubenon Jaguaress Dance Team and Watertown Blue Revue to perform at send-off February 24 at Ashwaubenon High School.

[End of media release]