Ashwaubenon High School Students' Artwork Showcased at Neville Public Museum

Ashwaubenon, WI – Feb 4, 2019– The artwork of five Ashwaubenon High School students will be on display at the Northeast Regional Art Education Association's Youth Art Month exhibition at the Neville Public Museum in Green Bay, Wisconsin. This show contains over 150 works by students in the Northeast region of Wisconsin and will be open to the public from February 5th through March 3rd, 2019. The students representing Ashwaubenon are as follows: Caylee Behnke, Claudia Dumoulin, Kharmilla Barton, Mackenzie Lindow, and Nancy Lor. A reception will be held at 1:00 on Saturday, February 9th to commemorate the student artists.

Each March, schools in the United States celebrate Youth Art Month as a time to recognize and promote the role the arts and art education play in children's' lives. The Youth Art Month shows are organized by the Wisconsin Art Education Association to promote excellence in the visual art and design education by showcasing student talents and abilities.
