ASHWAUBENON HIGH SCHOOL TECHNOLOGY & ENGINEERING PROGRAM AWARDED ITEEA PROGRAM EXCELLENCE AWARD

Ashwaubenon, WI – April 11, 2019 – The Technology and Engineering Education program at Ashwaubenon High School was recognized as one of only 37 programs worldwide to earn the Program Excellence Award in 2019 from the International Technology and Engineering Educator Association (ITEEA). The award was received at the annual conference for ITEEA held in Kansas City, Missouri last month. The Ashwaubenon High School educators receiving the award included Tom Barnhart and Dave Stroud, along with Jeremie Meyer, who was unable to attend the event.

The Program Excellence Award is one of the highest honors given to Technology and Engineering Education classroom teachers in the elementary, middle and high school levels. It is presented in recognition of outstanding contributions to the profession and students. Schools from all over the United States and around the world compete for this honor.

For more information, please contact Dave Stroud, Ashwaubenon High School Technology Education teacher, at dstroud@ashwaubenonk12.org or 920-492-2955, extension 5151.
