Ashwaubenon Hires Girls Soccer Coach

Ashwaubenon, WI – January 17, 2022- Ashwaubenon High School has hired Emily Bangen as the girls soccer coach at Ashwaubenon High School.

Activities Director/Associate Principal Nick Senger said, “I’m excited for Coach Bangen to coach our girls. She is looking forward to working with our student-athletes in the soccer program. She has coaching experience working with our JV soccer program in the past and is ready to jump to the varsity level. I am confident in her to build positive relationships with our team and push them to be outstanding young women.”

Coach Bangen said about being named coach, “I am looking forward to leading the girls soccer program. There is so much potential waiting for us. I look forward to investing in this year’s team and building the program and girls into competitors, hard workers, and skilled soccer players. It will be fun and exciting for our girls!”
