AHS Jaguar Marching Band to Present Veteran's Tribute Concert

Ashwaubenon, WI – Nov 7, 2019 – The Ashwaubenon High School's Jaguar Marching Band will be presenting a free to attend Fall Finale and Veteran's Tribute Concert at 7 p.m. on Monday, November 11th in the Ashwaubenon Field House.

In this concert, the high school bands will perform in full uniform a recap of their football game marching shows, including arrangements of the popular tunes "Counting Stars" and "All the Small Things." The symphonic band and wind ensemble will also be joined by members of Ashwaubenon Public Safety and the Ashwaubenon VFW Post to honor our veterans with the performance of a variety of patriotic tunes. The Ashwaubenon High School Bands, under the direction of Marc Jimos, Scott Konop, and student teacher Arthur Gajewski have performed in many locations across the nation, including most recently in the Macy's St. Patrick's Day Parade in New York City this past March.

For more information on this concert or other band activities and events, contact Marc Jimos, Director of Bands, at 920-492-2955 ext.5715 or at mjimos@ashwaubenonk12.org.
