SEVEN ASHWAUBENON STUDENTS COMPETE AT DECA INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION; TWO EARN MEDALS

Ashwaubenon, WI – May 3, 2016 – Seven Ashwaubenon High School students, Caden Krause, Carter Krause, Janmesh Patel, Teja Mallela, Bailey Conradt, Julie Clabots and Dhruva Murali, competed at the DECA International Competition in Nashville Tennessee April 23rd through April 25th. Janmesh Patel and Bailey Conradt both earned a medal in their category by finishing in the top 10 percent on the marketing test.

Over 12,000 students from around the world took part in the annual marketing competition, where they are required to take tests and perform business role plays. All the Ashwaubenon students who participated placed in the top six at the DECA State competition in order to advance to the International competition.

DECA is an association of marketing students. Many area high schools have DECA clubs which are organized into districts. Ashwaubenon High School is part of District Four which covers the Green Bay area and most of the Fox Valley. There are annual District, State and International competitions, where the top finishers qualify to move on to the next level.
