Parkview Middle School Student Scores In The Top 5% On SAT

Ashwaubenon, WI – May 26, 2010 – Donglin Zhang, a seventh grade student at Ashwaubenon’s Parkview Middle School, scored in the top five percent in the state on the Midwest Academic Talent Search SAT test. This program is an out of level testing program, offering the SAT test to gifted and talented students in third through ninth grades. Zhang was recognized and awarded a medal by the Wisconsin Center for Academically Talented Youth at an awards ceremony on May 8th at the University of Wisconsin – Madison.

Students are nominated to participation in the Midwest Academic Talent Search based on criteria indicating potential for high academic achievement. This multi-state program is administered by the Center for Talent Development at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois. Approximately 6,000 Wisconsin students participate each year in the talent search.
