Ashwaubenon High School Student-Athletes Attend WIAA Sportsmanship Summit

Ashwaubenon, WI – December 5, 2014 – Five high school student-athletes and AD/AP Nick Senger represented Ashwaubenon High School and the community at the 2014 Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association/Rural Mutual Insurance Sportsmanship Summit in Stevens Point on December 3rd.

Sixty-seven high schools from throughout Wisconsin representing all divisions were in attendance at the Summit held at the Holiday Inn & Convention Center. Each school was represented by a team of students, school administrators, coaches, school board members and/or community leaders.

The mission of the Sportsmanship Summit was to strengthen the principles of sportsmanship by promoting teamwork through networking and the sharing of resources, and instilling the motivation to make a difference. Participants received a variety of sportsmanship resources and articles to assist in developing an action plan for sportsmanship awareness at their school.

Alicia Guracisio, Carolann Faulhaber, Will Ark, Jaret Curtis and Nathan Holly represented Ashwaubenon High School. “I brought student-athletes that are leaders in their class, and can have a positive impact on their peers,” Nick Senger said. “These are the kids that can bring back what we learned and help create that atmosphere of excitement and positive behaviors.”
